

REMEMBERING
Aimee Lynn Smith-brown

November 11, 1982 - August 5, 2014

Smith-Brown, Aimee Lynn

"It takes two wings to fly"

It is with great sadness to announce the passing of a beautiful soul, Aimee Lynn Smith-Brown, passed away on August 5, 2014. Brought into this world from her ever-loving parents Matt and Terry Smith. Along her side growing up was her two brothers Mike and Josh. She married her best friend and man of her dreams, Jeremiah Brown. They raised five amazing kids together, Brianna, Danika, Myah, Alex and Zoey which she loved with every inch of her heart and they will carry a piece of her beautiful soul. She is now reunited with her baby boy Tristan Smith, who had passed at an early age many years ago. She was part of a very close and loving family full of cousins, auntys, uncles, grandparents and friends who all played an important role in Aimee's life, and thought the world of her. Most will remember her for her smile, so big and so bright, she would light up any room she entered. Others will remember her for her defensive skills used on the Lake Cowichan girls hockey team where she gained a whole team of sisters. Let us all join together for a celebration of Aimee's life being held on Monday August 18, 2014 between 12 - 4pm at the Centennial Hall in Lake Cowichan, B.C.
