Tribute from Lori Goodwin

Relation: Friend of Ruth & Frank Hartmann

Thinking of you in your time of loss Ruth, Frank, Tasha/Jay, Brett/MaryAnn and beautiful Great-grand Boys. Alwyne was a beautiful lady and soul. So welcoming, intelligent, kind and generous hearted; a truly grand Lady. I know you will miss her greatly. She was most fortunate to have you in her life, as you were to have her. I am glad you have wonderful memories to keep always.
Much love and warm hugs, Lori, Bryce and Kira

Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss.

Tribute from John Judy and Ian Mahon

Relation: cousins

Ruth and Kin,
Sorry to hear of your Mom. She sounds like she lived a full life. It appears like my Mom is holding a cousin reunion in heaven. She must be lonely! Alwyne is in good company!

Our Sympathy to you and yours.

Love,
Judy

Tribute from Mike Ward

Relation: friend

Dear Ruth and Frank,

We are so sorry to hear that Alwyne's life has come to a close. She will always be with you and your family of course in the wonderful memories you have of her and in the way she has touched your lives. We feel fortunate that we had the pleasure of knowing her and we wish her well in the the journey that she has set out upon.

We can see that Mrs. Marsh lived a very full life, filled with children and grandchildren, disappointment and hard times as well as great joy.

Mrs. Marsh always seemed to us a very classy lady, as witty as she was kind hearted and we know how much you will all miss her.

How special that Natasha could share her last day with her. Thinking of you and your family, Mike and Jacqueline
