

REMEMBERING
Ana Maria Oloriz

August 27, 1937 - August 19, 2020

Ana Maria Atayde Oloriz, began dancing with our father again, August 19, 2020. Ana was larger than life, loved her family ferociously, compassionate beyond words, an amazing cook, world traveler, from the time she left her birthplace, Manila, Philippines (with 2 little girls in tow, and one well on the way!) until she landed in Our True North Strong and Free, AND, last but not least ...FUNNY as all get out! We Salute You, Mama ...we'll miss your love, hugs, and how you made us laugh and laugh. This gracious lady's legacy is carried on by her eldest daughter, Maricel Piercey and husband Gord, their children, Desiree, husband, Jay, and Ana's great grandson, Jacob, Ana's grandson, Sean, and his fiancé, Mandy Winter, and Gord's daughters Rebecca and Meghan. Next in line is Ana's next daughter, Ana Marie Fleming and her husband, David, Ana Marie's three children, Johnathan Fleming, his wife, Jolene, and Ana's great grandchildren, Julia and Jessica, Joshua Fleming and his wife, Charlotte, Lisa Ridgewell and her husband, David. Third in line, is her last daughter, Bernadette McCormack, and husband Andy, along with Bernadette's two sons, Ben and Isaac. Last in line is Ana's only son, Martin Oloriz, his fiancé Christine, his 2 daughters, Gabriella and Zoey, and Christine's son, Sam. WoW, what a clan!

In lieu of flowers, for those who would like to make a donation, we'd love for you to donate to the charity of YOUR choice, or the Chemainus Healthcare Auxiliary who did such an amazing job taking care of our Mama. Ana gave to so many charities, we feel she would really really like that.

