Tribute from Alison and Joyce

Relation: Friends & neighbours of Marcia & Mack

It was always a delight when Barbara came to visit Marcia and Mack in Toronto. She was elegant and understated, fun to be with and genuine, a woman of both grace and depth. She was unstintingly loving.

We are sorry to hear of her death, and glad so many of her qualities live on in Marcia.

Tribute from Andrew Pike

Relation: St Jude's Board and church Connections

I send condolences and thanks for a life well lived. Having served on the board of St Jude's Home, Vancouver, with Babs for several years I came to value her love and respect for people. She was always generous of her love, care, and time. Her life and example has been, is, and will continue to be an inspiration to many.

Tribute from Susan McIntosh Burnett

Relation: Friend of my late parents, Jim and Betty McIntosh

Dear Marcia, Barbara, Mary and families,

My late parents, Jim and Betty McIntosh, were great freinds of your parents, Babs and Frank. My mother, Betty, was God Mother to your late sister, Frances. I am sorry to know of your Mother's and Frances's passing.

I have fond memories of Babs, a beautifiul, tall woman who was gracious, kind and calm. (I called her about three or four years ago to say hello, at which time we had a lovely chat.)

I am thinking of all of you as you mourn your dear mother's passing.

Kind regards,
Susan McIntosh Burnett

Tribute from Cynthia Johnston

I am very sorry to hear of your family's loss. Please know that my thoughts are with all of you.

(daughter barb's friend from WHS)

Tribute from Gordon Francis

Relation: Close family friend

We are sorry to hear about the passing of your mother. Babs was the oldest friend of our mother Sheila (nee Alexander, d1976), and a great comfort to her during times of illness. We'll remember Babs's good humour, kindness, amazing posture, and what a lady she was.
Kathy, Helen and Gordon Francis

Tribute from Margaret and Harvey Buckmaster

Relation: Member of Wood/Darling clan

Margaret and Harvey only just learned about Babs death today. We were saddened to have missed her funeral. Her generation of Darlings are rapidly disappearing. She was a very vivacious and caring person.
