Tribute from Brian Lapierre

Relation: Friend.

Really sad to hear this. Bernie and I first met in Cornwallis in Sept 1966. We played hockey together for the Cornwallis Cougars. After our Basic Training I went to Stadacona for my training and he was Naval Air went to Shearwater for his. We later sailed in Bonaventure together in 1967-69. We lost touch after unification. We found each other about 10 years ago, had lunch and a few laughs when he came to Halifax. We kept in touch and talked periodically the latest in early July at Canada Day. RIP Bernie and may all your good deeds be a blessing in your memory. Condolences to his family. I will not forget him.
