Brian Mills passed away in his home on December 18.

Born in northern Alberta on October 18, 1950, Brian moved to Vancouver Island in 1980. He was a founding member of the Nanoose Bay Peace Camp, organizing non-violent actions in protest of the American nuclear submarine testing in that area, and drawing publicity to many other environmental and humanitarian issues. Political Activist, Astrologer, Healer, Teacher, Caregiver, Father, Grandfather, Uncle, Brother and Friend to so many, Brian's spirit continues to live within us all.
