

REMEMBERING
Brian Perry-Whittingham
January 21, 1936 - February 13, 2020

Brian Perry-Whittingham was born near London, England on 21 January 1936 and passed away in Cowichan District Hospital, Duncan, B.C on 13 February 2020.

Survived by his loving wife Rosslyn Eve and her children Gary, Allison and Keith Eve and their families and his children Charles and Natasha. Also leaves behind his brother Tony Perry-Whittingham and family.

Predeceased by his father Charles Perry RAF during World War II, his mother Kathleen Whittingham and his stepfather Stanley Whittingham.

Brian graduated from UBC School of Medicine, completing his internship at Royal Jubilee Hospital in Victoria, B.C. in 1964, then started a solo family practice serving Sooke and surrounding area for over forty years. It was the epitome of "the old time Doc" as he actually made house calls.

Being community minded he was a member of Sooke Chamber of Commerce, Sooke Lions Club and South Vancouver Island Rangers. He also served in the Royal Canadian Navy Reserve for several years.

Brian enjoyed boating, fishing, hunting, gardening and was eclectic collector, he could often be found at auctions and local casinos in his spare time.

Celebration of Life will be held at H.W. Wallace Cremation and Burial Centre on Saturday February 29, 2020 at 2:00 pm.

In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to Hospice or The Heart and Stroke Foundation.
