Caleb you will be so missed here in this life.

Our deepest condolences to Ethan, Renee, Jason, and all of the family.

Caleb you are truly an old soul and you touched so many people in your short time here. We will cherish your wit, laughter, and kindness.

God Bless.

Lynn and Dave.

Tribute from Dawn Noble

Relation: nieghbour of great grandparents

We are so sorry for your loss , I used to hear Caleb and his brother playing when they were small . It was a joyful sound . No family should have to go what you are going through , you are in our thoughts and prayers .

Tribute from Annette Dawes

Relation: Education Assistant in Caleb's grade 2 class

Ethan, Renee, Jason and family: I am so terribly sorry to hear of the loss of your bright, smiling, brother and son. There are just no words to express that can ease the passing of a child. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

Caleb and I had a great relationship; we used to spend time wandering Khowhemun field during recess chatting about many things. When I asked if he'd rather play with friends, he'd say "no, I'd rather see how long it takes to annoy you." Then he'd give me a great big smile and continue to tell his tall tales. At Drinkwater, when he was in grade 4, we reconnected and the conversations continued. He spend much of the year admittedly trying to convince me that I needed a dog in my life.

Being a cat person wasn't an acceptable answer to Caleb.

Caleb, I will never forget your witty humour and never ending smile.

Tribute from The Schmidt's

Relation: Friend

Thanks for so many great memories Caleb you are a unique young man who we will never forget. You and Ethan locking the girls out while babysitting, selling us your mom and dads cedar tree as a Christmas wreath. So many great stories we'll tell when we talk about you and Ethan. 11 years we watched you grow up at Mike and Bev's. We're almost out of tears now but we'll have a hole in our hearts for some time. Renee, Jason, Ethan and all your family thank you for letting us be part of your family even in the smallest way we have (neighbors across the fence). You are all in our thoughts and prayers.

Gordon, Cathy, Natasha, Samantha and Shaunna

Tribute from Glenda, Dale, and Jordan Atcheson

Relation: Friends

To Jason, Renee, and Ethan We are so sorry for the loss of Caleb. He was an amazing kid who made us all smile and laugh when around him. "Hockey will never be quite the same without him" He will be sadly missed by all who knew him.
