

REMEMBERING
Carol Russell

July 21, 1945 - December 13, 2009

Carol Patricia Russell (nee Beleyowski) was born on July 21, 1945 in Prince Albert Saskatchewan, the youngest of five children. She attended university in Saskatoon and then moved to Chicago in the early 1970's where she lived and had a career in advertising for over nine years. Carol moved back to Canada in the late 1970's and was hired on by Southland (owners of the 7-11 convenience stores) as their western region purchasing manager and was later transferred to Vancouver in the early 1980's.

Carol and her husband Quentin met at a dinner party in December 1985 and were married on Nov. 23, 1986 in Christ Church Cathedral in Vancouver.

Carol and Quentin together developed the Earl Of Sandwich chain of sandwich shops in Vancouver beginning in 1987 and retired from the business in 1997.

Carol and her husband moved to Victoria in 1997 and in November of 2000 her wonderful grandson Jacob was born and they quickly formed a close bond. When Jacobs' mother Naomi passed away in 2008, he came to live with Carol and husband Quentin in North Cowichan where the bond grew even stronger and Jacob was to benefit from Carol's wisdom and warm, caring love.

Carol leaves behind to mourn her, her husband Quentin, grandson Jacob Russell (pictured), siblings Marie A. Kernaghan (Fred), Gene Beleyowski, Bob Beleyowski (Gloria), Helen Baszuki (Paul), sisters in-law Suzanne Gomez (Jose), Deborah Prangnell (Mick) and brother-in-law Daniel (Gayle) and many other friends and relatives throughout Canada and the United States including especially supportive friends Dot, Barry, Rick and Barb all of Victoria B.C.

Carol was a gentle, loving woman who fought like a tigress for over two years in her courageous fight against breast cancer and finally had to let go on Dec. 13, 2009 in the comfort of her own home while holding the hand of her husband.

A Celebration of Carol's life will be held at the Royal Oak Burial Park, 4673 Falaise Dr., Victoria B.C. on Saturday January 9, 2009 at 1:00 p.m. Online condolences may be offered at www.hwwallacecbc.com
