Tribute from Brenda Piett

Relation: Carolyn was my sister

My heart goes out to everyone who loved her. She was a special sister and I am so grateful to have had her in my life. So many memories were made this past year that I will never forget. She was so strong and taught me so much. Thank you for being a wonderful sister. Love Brenda

Tribute from Suzanne Murray-Aronson

Relation: We were co-workers at London Drugs

My deepest sympathy to Carolyn's husband, Terry, all her family and friends. I really enjoyed the conversations that she and I had in our staff room at London Drugs. As well, her knowledge and caring when I needed her assistance in the Pharmacy. She was a beautiful person and I will miss her very much. Rest peacefully, Carolyn.

Tribute from Cecily Bradshaw

Relation: Friend

I first met Carolyn during a summer internship in the Pharmacy of the Western College of Vet. Medicine in Saskatoon. She was my supervisor. We reconnected as colleagues in later years when I began working at OVC in Guelph. Carolyn was an insightful and exacting mentor. We shared a very unique friendship and I am forever grateful for the gift she was in my life. I mourn her passing, but rejoice I was able to share in her journey through life. My deepest condolences to her family and friends. Cecily Bradshaw, Toronto
