Tribute from Ivan Chow

Relation: Brother and mentor for 20 + years in corrections.

CJ my brother, I am going to miss you immensely until our paths cross again. I can not imagine how many of us are devastated by your passing. I will always treasure the time that we have spent together. You have always had my back and you have assisted me in so many ways. I will always treasure your memory CJ. There were so many good times and all those meals that we shared. You have assisted in me growing as a person, an officer and family man.

I truly grieve your departure and my sincere condolences to your family and all your brothers and sisters at work. The good lord took you much too soon. I will remember all the positive occurrences and events. Godspeed my brother. Love you always. Ivan

---

Tribute from Ivan Chow

Relation: Fellow officer

CJ, my heart is broken and I am devastated. Thank you for always being there for me and having my back. The good lord took you much too quickly and too soon. I will always treasure the memories we have shared. Godspeed my brother until our paths cross again. Condolences to your family and all your peers. Ivan.

Tribute from Tim D Murdy

Relation: Friend

Our sincere and deepest condolences to the whole family, but especially Andi & Gracie. Words will never help with the pain and sense of loss, but take comfort in knowing that you all were very blessed to have such a special man in your lives - albeit for far too short of a time. He loved you all with all of his heart - we could see it every time we were lucky enough to share his company. We will always be there to help and support in whatever manner you need. We love you all, Tim and Teisha

---

Tribute from Wendy Bowen

An Irish Blessing
May the road rise to meet you
May the wind be always at your back
May the sun shine warm upon your face
The rain fall soft upon your fields
And until we meet again,
May God hold you in the palm of his hand.

I am deeply sorry for your loss.
May Grace surround you and your loved ones during this time of grief.

Tribute from Richelle McGinnis

Relation: Co worker

To CJ family, I am so sorry to hear of your huge family loss. The obituary was beautifully written and made me cry. I knew you husband son dad for a decade when I worked as a peace officer at VIRCC. I remember him as a new staff quickly winning over old staff. He had a great knack of staring right in your eyes. Concentrating making one forget about the chaos going on around . Had some good times, laughs so happy to hear he married and had a Gracie! Andi take good care of yourself, cry,laugh,remember enjoy your life CJ would have wanted you to be having fun !

Tribute from Andy Juan

Relation: VIRCC co-worker

My trainer, supervisor, mentor, and most of all, my rock. Your unexpected, sudden depature has devastated so many lives you have touched. I will never forget your humor at work. It put a smile on my face every time I pass through the supervisor office. It was an honour to be trained by you and to have worked alongside you. Wherever you may be, I would like to use your famous Bruce Lee quote you used to say to me all the time: "Be like Water." Formless but never forgotten. My heart is broken and I will miss you dearly. Lastly, my deepest, sincere condolences to CJ's immediate family. Rest easy CJ.

Tribute from Pamela Audley

Relation: A friend through Corrections

I am so very very sorry.....please know that CJ has touched so many lives is so many ways.

Tribute from Sean Collett

Relation: Friend and co-worker.

CJ was a selfless and honourable man who never ever hesitated to speak up and take action to defend the rights of others before himself. He spoke truth to power regardless of personal consequences and took great delight in ruffling those feathers! Rest easy brother knowing you improved the lives of so many folks. He will be sorely missed.

Tribute from Kathy Korman

Relation: family friend

Sending much love and prayers. I know that CJ is in the arms of his mom and dad once again. He will be sorely missed. I still remember the smile and twinkle in his eye when he was a young boy. Keeping all of you close in my heart.
Love,
Kathy Korman
