My sincere heart felt condolences to Chris's family. I am a tenant at Chris's house and I have grown to be a good friends with Chris in such a short time. My family and I are very thankful for Chris and his being our saving grace as to allowing us to rent his beautiful home which he owned with his sister Sandy. I can't even grasp the concept that I will never see such an amazing man in my life again. All I can say is I pray that he is at peace and sending prayers for his children. Much love and respect to Chris and Sandy may you rest in peace, chris. i'm so sorry that your suffering was unbearable. you had such impact on me at CDH-you exemplified for me what a stellar health care professional is-compassionate, present, always ready to give a helping hand, or hold a hand. i have heard countless times the comfort chris brought to patients. and to me, as his colleague. i will miss you. we all will.

A first class gentleman and a delight to be around. And funny! Oh, how he made us laugh. He will be remembered so fondly. Condolences to the family and friends.

Tribute from Sandra Barton

Relation: I am cousin to Devon and the boys

You were so loved and one of the nicest men I've ever met. So kind and gentle and spontaneous with a smile. I feel privileged to have met you and I watched you with your sons. The love shone from your eyes for them. I know you suffered silently within, but never showed it. We will miss you Chris and I hope you have found peace now. May your family find their own peace in time and may all the good memories help them in their grieving.

Tribute from Julie Gibler

Relation: Chris was a former nursing student of mine at VIU.

Chris was in my Pathophysiology class in the nursing program at VIU for two semesters and ultimately we'd become colleagues and friends over time. When he was looking for furniture for his new place, he purchased a desk from me that I no longer needed. His mother and step father live only steps from me in Parksville; and whenever I saw Marianne, she would give me updates on Chris's new work, life in Duncan and about his kids. His profession and extended network of other nurses will miss his perspectives and kind nature. I wish his family the comfort of family and friends at this very sad time. My deepest condolences to all of you.

Tribute from Sharlyn Richardson

Relation: Friend and Colleague

My family and I were deeply saddened to hear about Chris's passing. He was an amazing friend, classmate and nursing colleague. His dedication to the practice of caring was inspiring and evident for all who were privileged to know him. He had a knack for creating smiles wherever he went and I will cherish our many fun times together. Chris was a wonderful father, and his love and devotion to his boys was truly moving. Our thoughts and prayers are with his family during this time of loss and we wish you comfort in your grief. To our dear friend Chris, we hope you found the peace you were searching for...we will remember you always.

Tribute from Christina Rowsell

Relation: Friend

My condolences to your family. I went to school in Castlegar with Chris and he graduated in my brother's class who passed away many years ago now. No words to express our sadness at this time. Sending loving thoughts at this time to his family and friends.

Tribute from Carla Knipe

Relation: friend from high school

I am so sad to hear this news. Although we lost touch after high school in Castlegar, I always wondered where he ended up and wished our paths would cross again. He encouraged me so much in school where I had a tough time, and he made me laugh when no one else could. He was a genuine soul and I considered him a true friend. I know what the struggle with mental illness is like and I am still susceptible to it even now. I just wish that I had the chance to encourage him like he encouraged me. I will never forget him or the kindness he showed.

Tribute from Lori Danielson

Relation: Co worker

I worked with Chris. He was an energetic soul. Heartbreaking that he suffered in silence. He will be missed.

Tribute from Shari Stone (Gollner)

Relation: Cousin

Our condolences to all the Sharp families. Rest In Peace Christopher.

Tribute from Ron Thiessen.

Relation: Friend/co-worker

I had the pleasure of working with Christopher when he lived in Rossland. He was a quality individual and I never met anyone who did not like him. His magnetic personality and million dollar smile made people want to be around him. People come and go but very few made such a positive and lasting impression at Ferraro Foods the way Chris did. Family was very important to Christopher and he spoke of this often. With that being said I would like to extend my heartfelt sympathies to the the Sharpe family during this tremendously difficult time.

Tribute from John Eggleton

Relation: former teacher, friend.

Immensely saddened by this news; I enjoyed an early, animated relationship with Christopher; beginning in kindergarten where he romped and laughed during our gym classes. He forever would put a smile on my face. He was a gift to us all. Sincere condolences to the most caring sister, Sandra and family.

Tribute from Athena Chan

Relation: former classmate

I was deeply saddened to hear of Chris' passing. He was my classmate many years ago in Castlegar, and remember him fondly as a kind, humourous, open-minded and caring person. I still remember the song he made up near Christmas when we were in Grade 5: "Noel, Noel, Noel, Noel / We got no water 'cuz we got no well." I really loved that he made people laugh without making fun of others. I'm sorry I didn't know you also lived on Vancouver Island (I'm in Victoria) as I would have come to visit you. Rest in peace, Chris, and my sincere condolences to your family.

Tribute from Tracey Colman
