Tribute from Lorene, Alain and Francene Benoit Chabot Family

Relation: Waldorf, Eye Opener

Alain just saw Clive's announcement in the paper- Francene is here for Xmas and we all read it together. So sorry, we had no idea Clive had been ill - a testament to his stoicness whenever I saw him at Eye Openers. We know he will be sadly missed in this community, as well as by his family. Blessings to all of you at this time to help adjust to his physical loss.

Tribute from Sharon Jackson

Relation: Friend

I offer you my sincerest condolences at this very sad time. Clive was a great man, smart, funny and always a pleasure to meet. His views on politics and the world were always welcome. He was very supportive of me personally in local politics and I shall miss him very much.

I bumped into him at Blackberry Beer and Wine store shortly after he had received the news of the extent of his illness and while he was visibly shaken, his fortitude impressed me very much. I can only hope that when my time comes I can show as much courage and grace.

Tribute from Barb Jansen

Relation: through work

It brought me such great sadness to open the paper last night and see Mr. Foot's smiling face in the obituaries. I work at the the photo centre in Walmart, and have enjoyed many visits from Mr. Foot(Clive) over the years. I always enjoyed hearing his many stories. I always think of him this time of year. A few years back he told me of your family traditon of playing board games over the holidays. I told my husband how I would love to do that with our family.

More than a few months ago now Clive came to see me at work and I was very busy. I turned and saw him, I smiled and asked "how are you"? But he was not smiling. He saw I was very busy and said he would be back. I never did see him again. But it did bother me for some time, I could tell that he wanted to tell me something. Shortly after I took a 3 month leave from work to care for my mother-in-law who also died from cancer this month.

I can not make it today to the celebration, but I really wanted to send my condolences to you and your family in this very difficult time. Mr. Foot will be forever missed at the Photo centre....Lots of love to you all...Barb

Tribute from Teichgraber Family

Relation: Long time Friends

As we reminisced about Clive the main point that always came up was his willingness to help in any given situation. Whether we needed help pushing a car out of a ditch, or Reinholt needed help bringing another car back from Edmonton, Clive was always there willing and able. We will hold him in our memory as a man who enjoyed life through his family, global community and the many friends he made over the years.

Tribute from Jim Cleough and Nevena Brkich

Relation: Friends

We are so very sorry to hear of Clive's death. Neither of us has seen him for awhile, and had no idea he was ill. It is hard to imagine never hearing his voice again, or seeing his cheerful face. His strong character and lively personality will be sorely missed. As will the many great conversations we would have had. Our hearts go out to his family, especially Paula, Ashley and Nina. Blessings on his spirit; may he find rest.

With loving regards,

Jim Cleough and Nevena Brkich
