Tribute from Debbie Crow

Relation: friend

Disbelief and sadness fill my heart.

Colleen's laugh, her sparkling blue eyes and her sense of humour will be missed always.

I could not find a more loyal, loving friend.....intensely private yet always willing to share her time and energy with me.

In my book of life, she will forever be found under the heading "True Friend".

Rest in peace dear Col, knowing you were loved and you truly made a difference.

Tribute from Pam and Bill Webb

Relation: Friend

It was such a pleasure to bask in her light all the times we spent together. Seattle micro breweries to candle light dinners chez Webb...all very fun times with Colleen. Rest in Eternal Peace Colleen, and blessings to family and friends who will miss her unique spirit!

Tribute from doreen webb

Relation: friend

i'm shocked and saddened. colleen was a bright light through many years of my life. she was always "good to go" and up for any new adventure. she was also an honest and good person, and generous to a fault. you will be missed my friend.

Tribute from Bob Swanson and family

Relation: Business Associates

Wow, we are so sorry to hear the news! Colleen was wonderful. We first met at Pim's and again at Home Hardware. She was always "right up there". Eager to help out with that great attitude and smile...we will think of her always. A true loss. From our family to yours, our thoughts are with you.

Relation: childhood friend

Dear Arta, Steve and families,

Was so shocked to hear of Colleen's passing. Tried to reconnect with her when we lived in Calgary at the same time. However much to my disappointment it never worked out. I was a stay at home boring mom and Colleen was travelling all the exotic places i wanted to go to.i had so many fun times with Colleen i n jr. high school and really enjoyed knowing your whole family.

i am so sorry for your loss.

Sincerely

linda buffie (schwabe)

Tribute from Denise Soulodre

Relation: Air Canada colleague and friend

How sad to hear of Colleen's untimely passing. I will always remember her love of life and generous ways. Whether it was rushing together to help a wheelchair passenger make his connection at the other end of the Winnipeg airport or bouncing along in her jeep searching for a new house in Calgary or standing together at Connie and Ralph's wedding, I will never forget her welcoming smile, saucy jokes and infectious laughter. You could not stay glum around this leprechaun - she brightened every day! Sincere condolences to her family and all her friends.

Tribute from Pat Nichol

Relation: Good friend

To Lesleigh, Kate & Colleen's Family

Stars are shining a little less brightly on the world this week with the passing of our good friend, Colleen. Although I haven't seen much of her in the last decade, our time together in Victoria was a joy. She always had just the right touch to make every occasion a celebration - full of laughter and joy. She was especially kind to my mother, Hilda Smith when she was in hospital and made Mom's extended stay there pleasant. I share in your grief, but know that you are made less sad by happy memories. Sincerely Pat.
