Tribute from Kathleen

Relation: friend

OMG can'tbelieve it ... i was just thinking about her and was going to ask her to go to my daughter's wedding with me . Because of of all the years and drama of living on the island i considered debbie to be my best friend even though we split ways when i moved to crofton. She had a lot of wisdom to share with me as i was a lot younger than her but she was my equal , i loved her , was intimidated by her , and at time jealous .. I don't know why she was taken so soon but, she must have done her job on earth . I will always miss ower freindship love always and forever
