Tribute from Kathy & Bill Allen

Relation: Friend

Dear Lynne and Family:

We were deeply saddened to hear the news and although words cannot adequately express our deepest sympathies we hope this message conveys the love we had for Donato. Despite the years, distance, and circumstances Donato remained a true friend who by his grace and humor enriched our lives.

Tribute from Chelsey Sweet-Coulter

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Donato was like a Dad to me, his son Mike has been my best friend for the past seven years. "Never say good-bye because saying good-bye means going away and going away means forgetting"

---

Tribute from David Denley

Relation: co worker

I am very sorry to hear Donato passed away. I enjoyed his company and his insights into the accounting profession. He helped many entrepreneurs along the way. I will miss him.

---

Tribute from Larry & Cheryl Helgesen

Relation: Colleague in Concrete World

We would like to send our condolences to Donato's family. He was well liked in the concrete world, and was always willing to offer advice or information. We considered him a friend, and he will be missed.

Tribute from Peter Martin

Relation: Friend, co-worker, client

Dear Lynn and Family.

We were shocked today to discover Donato had passed away so suddenly.

He was such a character. We will miss his friendship, humour, and good advice, especially at tax time.

Our thoughts are with you all.

Peter, Lesley and Family

Tribute from Melissa Stedman

Relation: Friend

Lynn, I am so sorry to hear of Donatos passing. I only just found out, while we didn't "see" much of him on a regular basis, the entire family thought of him as a friend. Our sincere condolences to you and your family, he will remain in our hearts.
