Tribute from Anthony SCANGA

Relation: a very good friend

My deepest sympathy and prayers are with you, the family. Your mother was truly a wonderful friend. It is the mystery of God's plan how our paths in our life crossed with each other. In April of 1977 I called your Mother & Dad inquiring about renting your home for a year. From that moment our friendship was planted and grew over these many years. Your mother's friendship and love is cherished by me. I am truly blessed to have known your parents and everyone in the family. May she & your dad enjoy the Joy and the happiness of the Presence of our God. Thanks be to God.
