Sorry to miss the Celebration of Life as I only learned of this tonight. Doug was a fine citizen and friend and I enjoyed working with Doug and Christa in political matters. I am saddened by his loss but recognize that he lived a very full and productive life. My deepest condolences to Christa and the family.

Tribute from Russ Bradshaw

Relation: from school

Although Doug never actually taught me (I believe he was vice principle) he had a special way in dealing with teens weather problematic or not. This created a great amount of respect among the students as I remember. Was a fine man and had a great life, sorry for your loss.

Tribute from Janet Fullerton

Relation: OT at CDH

I mostly ever saw Doug when he was feeling the worst and yet he always had a kind word or funny quip when we would meet. I enjoyed our conversations and Dougs many stories. Christa i admired your cheerful determinedness and strength which enabled Doug to recover each time and return home. I have enjoyed and appreciated the opportunity to know you both and am sorry that you are now apart. Take care. Janet

Tribute from Ross Janes

Relation: friend

I'm very sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Stewart.
He was my favourite soccer coach when I was growing up.
The values of team work and fair play he instilled in me as player have stayed with me all these years.
My condolences go out to all of his family.
