Tribute from Irene Carter (nee Hayes)

Relation: Friend of the family

Dear Pam: Our prayers and thoughts are with you with the passing of your Mom. I have such fond childhood memories of when I used to stay overnight at your house while my parents were Square Dancing. I remember how your Mom would make me toast in the morning, but loved to tease me that I didn't want jam on it.

My Mom also wishes you well. She had just phoned your Mom a few weeks ago and was quite shocked to hear of her passing.

I will always remember your Mom as a happy and loving individual.

Take care, Irene Carter and Alice Hayes

Tribute from Gerard Robert Smith

Relation: cousin

Eileen was a gracious lady who always made my wife Vivian and I welcome whenever we visited, particularly when we first entered Canada as immigrants. She had an open and honest demeanour and a jolly sense of humour.

We shall miss her but we will always remember the final visit we made with her, a few hours before her, unexpected, passing. Then she was clearly resting, at ease, and she was happy, lucid and comfortable.

Knowing Eileen has endowed us with very fond memories and it was truly a pleasure being related to her.
