Tribute from Eileen Dirom

Relation: Colleague

Sending condolences to all her family and friends...I had the privilege of working with Betty over the years. Betty you will be missed. You did it your way and drove the bus

Tribute from Paula Ramwell

Relation: Friend and coworker

Many good memories of time spent with Betty. Such a good person to talk to. Worked and learned a lot from Betty. Enjoyed crafting with her and shared many a laugh over a glass of red wine. Love and condolences to Betty's family and friends

Tribute from Judy Aldcroft

Tribute from Lynn Stevenson

Relation: cousin

Very sorry to hear this news. I have more than a few very happy childhood memories of all of the times the cousins spent together at each other houses, xmas, birthdays etc. Glad Betty is at peace now..

Tribute from Christine McMahon

Relation: Cousin

From childhood Betty was a lively and fun being. She enjoyed creating beautiful arts and crafts and loved her dogs. There were always good stories and laughter when Betty was around. Love and blessings to her and her family.
