Tribute from Tony and Val Crossley

Relation: Next door neighbour in Arbutus Ridge for many years

This is an especially difficult time to lose a loved one, without the ability to gather together and share memories and support one another. We regret that we learned of the outdoor service belatedly, otherwise we would have been there, if numbers permitted, to honour Eric and to personally extend our condolences to Eleanor and Eric's family. So we will do our best instead via this means, to convey our sadness at Eric's passing. Eric was a lovely man, a great neighbour and friend -- kind, funny, principled, smart, interesting -- a man who spoke with such love and pride about his family and, recently and particularly, about his adored grandchildren. He had much to live for and this is indeed a tragedy. At the same time, we are all fortunate to have had an opportunity to know him, and we will remember him as a good and extraordinarily decent man. Our most sincere condolences to Eleanor and your family and all Eric's friends who loved him. We are so, so sorry, Eleanor, and we look forward to seeing you when circumstances permit. Love from both of us.
