Relation: I worked with Kim,,, and was a part of his extended family...

The news of Kim's passing hit me with a sadness and stillness all at once this morning,,, I worked with Kim, for thirteen years in Victoria, at Allied,, 1969-1982,, he was a devoted husband and parent,,, he was a true friend and fair foreman at Allied Glass,,, during those years at Allied,, all of us felt a kinship with each other,, and a feeling of belonging to an extended family,,, all of which Kim and Faith contributed to,,, I am sure he will be sitting in a coffee room in heaven with the others from Allied that have departed, , playing kings and little ones, three card draw, for dime and nickels, , cranking on each other just as we did every lunch hour. A truly good man and group of friends,, I missed them all for years after I left...and as each one passes it truly rips a piece of my heart,, love to you all...

Relation: Friend

My father, Henry Borge, started Allied Glass & Aluminum Products when I was a child so I grew up knowing Kim and Faith. It's true that Kim was a fair foreman for many years at Allied and someone my father could always depend on. I too felt sad and surprised to see his obituary in the paper this morning...another one of the extended "Allied Glass" family gone. And I too can see them in the lunch room enjoying some laughs while playing cards.

Relation: Long time friend

To Kim's family

I was saddened to hear of Kim's passing. I think I've known Kim most of my life as he and my brother Glen were grade school friends. He liked to tease and I was a very gullible kid. He often used to tell me he "was going to see a man about a dog" and I thought boy he sure knew an awful lot of men with dogs. It was a some years later when I heard that expression and realized the meaning that my "leg had most firmly been pulled". Kim was so easy to like. He and Faith were such a great couple and I was very fortunate to know them both.

With sincere sympathy
Donna (Stephens) Blyth
