

REMEMBERING
Glen McMaster

May 11, 1935 - February 11, 2014

Glen Eric McMaster passed away peacefully after enduring a brave struggle with cancer, Tuesday February 11, 2014 at the Cowichan District Hospital.

Glen was born May 11, 1935 in Young Saskatchewan to Angus and Christena McMaster. After time spent in the Navy, he then found employment at a service station and he also worked as an electrician.

Glen went on to work for Correctional Services Canada for over 30 years, starting at Oakalla Prison in Burnaby ,then Matsqui Institution in Abbotsford and completed his career at William Head Institution in Victoria.

A few of Glen's favorite things were, socializing with friends and family via computer, researching genealogy and family history and being a proud member of the Legion.

He had a great love for animals and the outdoors.

Glen will be remembered for his crazy sense of humor which he carried with him to the end.

Glen leaves behind, his four daughters, Jannice Collins (Bob), Heather McMaster, Valorie McMaster (Brian), Sylvia Taylor (Bruce), his five grandchildren, Cody Bellizz, Chelsea Bellizz, Cole McMaster, Kaden Taylor and Shontel Taylor. He is also survived by his two sisters Hazel McMaster of Mission, Joyce Lappin of Saskatoon, as well as his many other loving friends and relatives.

A Celebration of Life will be held at a later date.

For info in regards to this contact (250)-479-3850

