Dear Trish and family. We were heartbroken when we heard of the passing of your dear Glen. He was so full of love, life and generosity. Our thoughts and prayers go to you and your family.

Tribute from Robin Duke

Relation: Wife's friend

Trish, I'm so sorry to hear about Glen. My message is late as I'm just reading this now but please know how terribly sorry I am and I'm thinking of you xx

Tribute from Kathleen Williams

As soon as Carlie became family the rest of us were treated like family also. Glen was so kind and welcoming to anyone who stopped by the farm. You could see and feel his pride for his family and the life he and Trish had built. He will be remembered by all who knew him and we will be sure his grandsons grow up knowing what a wonderful man their grandfather was. We are thinking about you all.

Tribute from Dawn Fedorchuk

I am so sorry to hear of this unexpected loss. Please accept my heartfelt condolences.

Tribute from Bill & Lynn Jones

Relation: neighbours and friends

We were fortunate to call Glen a friend for over 20 years. He was kind, generous and always happy to see you. He was one of the first people to help us when we moved to the neighbourhood and that help never wavered over the years. We are still a little shocked he is gone but we wish the family the best and will remember Glen fondly. Rest in peace my friend.

Tribute from Liz Van Essen

Relation: My company supplied cabinetry for their new home years ago.

Dear Trish and Family,

We are sorry for your profound loss at this time and wish to send you our sympathy. I have fond memories of working with you both when you built your new home in Glenora. He was a kind considerate man and enjoyable to work with, and had a good sense of humour. May the many good memories help serve to ease your pain; you will carry those in your hearts always.

Most sincerely,

Liz and Leon Van Essen
