

REMEMBERING

Hareesh Manhas

January 7, 1966 - June 17, 2013

MANHAS: Hareesh (Hash) - passed away suddenly with his family by his side on Monday, June 17, 2013. Born in Victoria BC on January 7, 1966. Predeceased by his father Joginder Singh. Lovingly remembered by his family; mother Parminder Kaur; brothers Narindar (Balvinder), Tejindar (Rosy) and Rajinder (Asha); always remembered by his grandparents, nieces, nephews and friends.

Hash worked with the Liquor Control Board for many years. He was an avid and loyal Vancouver Canuck fan, he enjoyed playing keno, baseball and bartended for many functions around the Cowichan Valley. Hash will be truly missed by his family, coworkers and many friends.

The family wishes to extend a special thank you to the person who gave Hash CPR as well as the Drs. and Nurses in the emergency at the Cowichan District Hospital.

A Celebration of life will be held at the New Life Baptist Church, 1839 Tzouhalem Road, Duncan BC on Saturday, June 22, 2013 at 11:30 a.m. Followed by cremation at the Cowichan Valley Crematorium. A luncheon and service will be held at the Paldi Temple following the cremation. Online condolences may be offered at www.hwwallacecbc.com
