Tribute from Jim and Sue Baker

Relation: Work-mate

Rest in Peace, Harry. And to your wonderful family, our deepest condolences. I knew and worked with Harry for a great number of years, he was truly a gentleman, and an it was an honour to work with him. Again, all our love and thoughts for your great loss.

Tribute from Madge and CaseyWeber

Relation: Through the lumber industry/construction

We are so sorry to hear of Harry's passing. Yes, Harry was a very fine gentleman who enjoyed life, people and laughter. When we saw Harry at a ball field or at a hockey rink, we knew there would be a good game played.. We will remember Harry as someone who left a legacy of kindness, dignity and respect to all he would journey with.. Rest in peace, dear friend. With condolences and love,.to you Manjit, and your beautiful family.

Harry and family have been our neighbours for many years.
Harry will be truly missed for his smile, laughter and kindness.
Manj and family, our thoughts are with you all at this time.
Sincerely Terry & Elaine

Tribute from Sylvia Lizama

Relation: I worked with Manjit

Manjit, so sorry to hear of your husband passing. Hope the love of your family and friends helps you through your immense loss. Much love.

Tribute from Roger Wiles

Relation: Neighbour

Manjit and Family,

Harry was the warmest, sunniest, smiliest, and most generous of neighbours. It was clear that what we saw in passing is what you got at home and this neighbourhood will miss him greatly!

Roger and Susie
