Tribute from H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre

H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Kelly Robertson

Relation: I was part of the sangha (community), Henry was the leader.

Henry dedicated decades to learning and liturgy. Being a teacher/messenger of the Buddha way. He was a published author and involved in many causes ,such as taking a stand against violence against women, being involved with the fund raising for rebuilding the Kinsol Trestle, trying to get the railway running again on the island, and he counseled people in prison who needed a fresh start. Henry touched the lives of countless people. I chant NMRK because of him. Ambitious and yet humble. Stubborn yet compassionate. Social yet appreciated solitude. I wish my friend well on his journey.

Tribute from Russ Browne

Relation: We attended Henry's Buddhist services.

My mother (Lilian Drewcock and I (Russ Browne) wish to offer our condolences to Henry's family. We had met Henry at his Buddhist centre and my mother had Henry and his practitioners come to her house as an alternate place for the service and Lilian gave Henry a large vessel for holding rainwater at the centre. Henry had a great spirit and we were saddened to learn of his passing. Here's to a great journey in your next existence Henry!
