Tribute from Lynn Landry

Relation: a friend

I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I will miss his teasing at our coffee meetings. Big hug Shirley

---

Tribute from Wynne Chisholm

Relation: Calgary Stampede

Ian was one of my favorite courtesy car drivers back in the 70"s - his dry wit always had us laughing. In later years, it was a pleasure to serve as an Honorary Life Director with him.

---

Tribute from Eleanor Bailey

Relation: Through the Calgary Stampede

Bill and I were sorry to hear about Ian's passing. I will always remember the many happy times when we served together on the Board of Directors of the Stampede. Shirley, we send our sympathy to you and your family.

---

Tribute from Robert (Bob) M Sumner

Relation: Family friend

Hi Irwin family. I'm so sorry for your loss. Ian was a great man and always made me smile or laugh. He had the special gift of making you feel good about yourself with a wink or a smile and sometimes a greatly timed curse word. I have many great memories of Ian and the world is a poorer place without him. I hope you all find some peace and please know I was thinking of you all. Bob Sumner jr.

Tribute from Steve and Rene Edwards
