Tribute from Gerard Martin

Relation: She was my aunt

Just a little note to say that I was sorry to hear Irene had passed away. I got to visit her once in Duncan a few years back and got to talk to her about her time outside Grand Falls. It is so sad to think that she is the last of that generation of all those brothers and sisters.

Tribute from Joan Casey

I was sorry to hear that Aunt Irene has passed. When growing up in Gander, our family made Sunday visits to Grand Falls and I always looked forward to spending time with Bridget. Aunt Irene was a strong woman, a hard worker and a person who had something to say about world issues (I sometimes heard such in conversations she was having with my dad, George).

I did see Aunt Irene in the late '90s when visiting my sister, Barbara, in Nanaimo - we had an afternoon of conversation and visits to the past. My sincere condolences to the Duggan family.
