Cliff, your helping, caring, humorous, strong, independent, generous spirit will stay forever. You will be missed by so many people. How can I fix anything? My heart goes out to family and friends who have suffered with Jackie during these last weeks. Jackie has been our rock and our information sharer. Jackie, each day know that your compassion, strength, energy, and love is being magnified and sent back to you. Condolences, Peace and Love.

Relation: Close friends for many years.

We send our sincere condolences to Jackie and family on the passing of her husband Cliff. He was a great friend to us, dearly loved, and will be sadly missed. He was positive to the end, and is now at peace. We will remember him with love.

Tribute from Karin Mackay

Relation: Friend

Cliff was a father figure to me, a wonderful and caring friend to our family, and a man with a great sense of humour and kindness. I remember when he taught me, with great patience, to drive a standard transmission car in hilly Victoria! I will miss his gentle and humble spirit. My deepest sympathy to Jackie, Gary and family in this difficult time.

Tribute from Paul Francis Copeland

Relation: Neighbour and friend

We have known Cliff as our neighbour while living opposite in Roachburn Road Newcastle upon

Tyne since 1967. We attended Jackie and Cliff's wedding and saw them frequently after Paul was born. He was the same age as our own son Simon. They moved later and now when we walk by the River Tyne at Newburn we remember their first home together. It was a sad day for us when they moved to a new life in British Columbia.

Cliff was a kind thoughtful man, very good at home improvements and glad to help us with his advice.

Since the move to Canada we have kept in touch through Christmas cards, Jackie's long letters and latterly emails. It was good to see them both again on their return to the UK, we shall always remember them happy together and in good health. His personality shone through and he will always be in our thoughts and prayers.

With fond memories,
Paul and Diana Copeland
