My precious Jim,

Never have I known a man so full of love and kindness for all.No matter where we went there was joyous stories to tell . Old and new friends just thrilled to see you .Laughter could be heard for blocks.You had a gift for making everyone feel special.You brought out the best in people.You would go miles out of your way to get something for someone in need.You made life so much fun for us.To see you so happy here at Duncan Manor was pure joy. You will be my love for the rest of my life.It was a great honour to be beside you.I share my grief with all of your family whom you loved deeply and with lifelong friends like Bonnie and Janis who were there for you no matter what.You are now at peace and for that I am grateful.Congratulations on achieving all your goals!!Your spirit will be in me forever xoxo Sandy

Tribute from Wade Bergman

Relation: Nephew

I won't ever forget your hearty laughter at our family gatherings when I was a kid.

I'm fortunate to have gotten to know you better when I was in my twenties and you would come and visit me for coffee at my work.

I moved away for 10 years and lost touch, but I'm happy we crossed paths when I was passing through Duncan last summer and we got to visit.

Rest In Peace, Uncle Jimmy.

I hope that you can be reunited with your son (Jimmy) and with Granny and Grandpa for a new start.
