

REMEMBERING
James Cameron

November 8, 1950 - September 15, 2015

James "Jim" Alexander Cameron, 64, passed away peacefully surrounded by his loved ones on Tuesday September 15, 2015 after a brief but courageous battle with cancer. He was born on November 8, 1950 to Lorne and Shirley (Wilson) Cameron.

Jim will forever be remembered for the love he had for his family. He always offered a big smile and warm hug or hand shake to those he was close to; leaving them feeling truly cared about. He could be counted on to offer a hand or an ear, always knowing exactly what to say with a gentle voice of reason. Jim, known for being very active in the community, treated everyone with kindness and loyalty and had the ability to see the best in everyone he encountered. He left this world with a positive attitude making sure that those around him knew exactly how much he loved them.

Jim will be lovingly remembered by his partner Mickie Acierno, sons Chris Cameron, Todd Cameron, daughter Stacy (Jeff) Middlemiss, stepchildren, Natalie (Josh) Gamache, Adam (Melissa) Acierno, Nikki Acierno; grandchildren, Raven, Eperly, Dailynn, Cayden, and Nolan, siblings, Wendy (Rick) Elliott, Cathie (Kevan) Griffith, sister in-law Verna Cameron as well as many nieces and nephews. Predeceased by his parents Lorne and Shirley, and brother Ric.

A Celebration of Life will be held at 1pm, Sunday, September 27 at the Ladysmith Eagles Hall 921-1st Avenue.

