

REMEMBERING Joanna Weston

January 20, 1938 - August 21, 2020

Tribute from H.W. Wallace Cremation & Burial Centre

H.W. Wallace Cremation and Burial Centre Staff send our condolences to family and friends.

Tribute from Louisa Howerow

Joanna was my poetry mentor for over 15 years, still is, and a thoughtful supportive friend. May you Robert, your sons Andrew, Jon, Mark, daughters-in-law, Julie, Sherri, Cathy, and the grandchildren EJ, Kennedy, and Luke find the comfort and strength needed. Words are inadequate at a time like this. I extend hugs to you In friendship and in love. Joanna, hugs to you, too...you are missed.

Tribute from Pearl Pirie

Relation: Friend

I am glad Joanna & I got to meet in Ortawa face to face when we did. She was inspiring in her ability to sell her books anywhere.

Tribute from Phyllis Sanchez

Relation: friend

Knowing Joanna has been an honor. I love her wit, her humor, her generosity. May you, her family, find peace, with time.

Thank you, Joanna, for being a part of my life. You are missed.

Tribute from Maritza

I didn't know Joanna for very long, but she was a part of my writing group and gave me valuable insight and inspiration as I started to write more seriously. I wish her family and friends the best.

Tribute from Bill Bartlett

Relation: We both belonged to the Internet Writing Workshop.

Joanna was a wonderful friend who wrote beautiful poetry and haiku that could move me to tears. She was always kind with comments about my columns. I'll miss her insight, her skill with words, and her judgment. I'm privileged to have known her from afar.

Tribute from Wayne Scheer

Relation: Member of her writing group.

Walk in the woods. Joanna is still creating haiku for us to enjoy.

Tribute from Shirley Jones

Relation: Met at St. John's Cobble Hill

Hearing of Joanna's passing was so sad. Although we seldom saw each other after I moved from Shawnigan I was so happy that Joanna was my friend. And such a delight to begin every Wednesday morning finding one of her poems in my email!

Sincere condolences.

Shirley Jones

Tribute from Tim and Nola Hendrie

Relation: We sang with Robert and knew Joanna through him.

We are very sorry to hear your sad news. Our condolences to you, Robert, and your family.

Tribute from Nancy Moore

Relation: A friend

Dear Robert, Andrew, Jon and Mark. I am sorry to hear of Joanna's passing. Such a luminous person, so alive to all around her. So encouraging to all of us.

Tribute from Martin Buck

Relation: Friend and brother in Christ

Irene and I went by the St John's cemetery to pay our respects to the many faithful departed and learned she left this world last summer.

We are so sorry for your loss, Robert and sons.

She was a force for great good.

I was just talking to the Rev George Rogers in England and he was asking after you both. I will pass on the sad news when next he and I chat. We, the Westons, the Holmes and the Cowlards with George's blessing and direction did a great ministry at St. John's and St. Andrew's those many decades ago. I still remember and benefit from those Lay School of Theology courses we took together from the University of the South.

Love and blessings to the Weston family.

Martin and Irene
