Tribute from Dana McCauley

Relation: great neice

Such a sad passing! Uncle Jack always talked to me like an adult - even when I was just a kid. He made me realize that thinking for yourself and having opinions was a good thing.

I'm sure I'll remember him always.

Tribute from Patrick & Patricia Godwin

Relation: good friend & neighbour

Patrick and myself want you to know how very highly we regarded Jack. To us, he was more than a "next door neighbour". Over 8 years, we became good friends, and considered it a privilege to have come to know him & Pat.

We will miss him a great deal, and will cherish forever his warmth and good nature - always willing to help a friend, or share a story, he was a very special person. He will live on in our fond memories of him.

Affectionately, Patrick & Patricia Godwin

Relation: Friend

I express my deepest condolences and sympathies to Patricia and families ...indeed, Jack touched many people throughout his life...I assure you, as a veteran, "we will remember him"...also, as a swimmer, we will remember him...I know Jack inspired many swimmers (even Patricia), young and old, competing in Masters Swimming... and, annually, completing the Keats-Gibsons swim... we are the better having known Jack.

Tribute from Ron and Judy Jermana

Relation: Friends

Having Jack come to work with me in 1973 was an absolute blessing besides being a great Pipefitter he became a great friend. He got me involved with swimming, taught me how to play chess and my family really enjoyed our sailing excursions . I admired the painting that he gave me of the navy vessel "Amherst" which his brother sailed on during WWII

Great memories of a wonderful man.

Our thoughts are with you Pat at this time

Tribute from Klaus Iden

Relation: family friend

I met Jack through my father who swam with Jack and Pat.

Jack was a good friend of my father and I got to know him over the past ten years. I appreciated his stories of life in BC and his dry wit..

His painting hangs on my livingroom wall and is admired by all who see it.

I shall miss you Jack.

Thanks for being you.

Tribute from Gill Weaver

Relation: family member

Such sad news to hear of Uncle Jack's death.

Fondly remembered by all Auntie Pat's family in Wales-"Land of her Fathers".

Jack stayed with the family during his war years and was always fondly remembered.

He returned to the valleys more recently with Pat to renew friendships, everyone pleased to welcome him once more.

He made the most of his life on earth and will be greatly missed by his family.

We all send our love and deepest condolences from Wales.

We are thinking of you all.

Take care.

Gill, Dave, Arthur and Heather

Tribute from Ramon Jermana

Relation: Son of friend, Ron Jermana

Jack worked with my father at Burrard Dry Dock. Jack used to take us out on their sailboat when we were kids. My father and I went with him when they moved their boat over from North Van to Gibsons. I had so much fun out on the water on their boat. I still have a picture of when Jack let me take the tiller when I was only 11 years old. Jack also took me for my first and only ride on a motorcycle. My mother made me wear a snow suit so I wouldn't get too cold. Thank you, Jack, for the great childhood memories. My thoughts and prayers are with Pat and Diane.
