He served honourably with the Royal Canadian Engineers in World War II and returned home to work as a pipefitter. Jack was a member of the UA Plumbers and Pipefitters Union local 170 for over 60 years. Jack is survived by wife, Patricia, daughter, Diane, son-in-law, Nick, granddaughter, Miyuki and sisters Ona and Bette. Members of the Canadian Masters Swimming Association of which Jack and Pat were active members for many years will remember Jack fondly. The family wishes to thank Dr. Bryan Bass and nurses Janice, Susan, Frank, Dimple, Monique and all the other members of his care team at Cowichan District Hospital. Your excellent care was noticed and will be remembered for a long time. At Jack's request, there will be no service.
