Tribute from Mark Woloszczak

Relation: Friend

I am very saddened by John's passing & would like to say how sorry I am to the family. Loosing a god friend & great person so sudden has shown me these great souls, that you see smiling everyday may not be here tomorrow. So sad.
I have known John for over 20 years, working with him & sharing the same neighborhood. Every time I saw him, he always had time to talk & share some laughs. I will miss him.

Tribute from Jim Cooper

Relation: workmates and long-time buddies

John and I first met at a party in Cherry Point when I was in Grade 12 - 47 years ago. John was visiting from the mainland. He was a tall, gregarious guy and great fun. He and I had a similar sense of humour so we got along great.
Time went by and about 1980 John and I worked together doing home renovations. John was always a very concientious guy and took pride in his work. Mornings were not his time to shine, though. We'd get started at 7:30 am. I'd say "Morning John! How ya doin'" His invariable reply was "Decent." He took a personal interest in our customers and one in particular would always request John and Bob to work on her jobs. She affectionately called them "My boys."
I haven't seen John in many years but I remember him fondly - a great co-worker, a devoted Dad and husband, an active member of his community and a guy I was proud to know as a friend. He has left us too soon and he is missed.
My hope is that went it's my time, that I get to go where the old dogs go. Perhaps we can catch up then, John. Peace, my friend.

Tribute from Neil Dangerfield

Relation: Friend of the family

It was always a pleasure to see John after a curling game. Whether our team played against Jason or another team, he seemed to know what the key to our success or failure was and was always willing to share his insight He must have watched a little of everyone's game while pacing the rink, but he made it seem like he really cared for the other island teams in cash and playdown events. I enjoyed our chats and will miss his sense of honest and humour. My deepest condolences.

Goodbye John. I will keep my memory of you.
I can still see him as a great story teller.
I see him with a pint in front of him (actually a number of full pints in front of him) and with a cigarette in his mouth. I still see him telling a story, wearing that blue denim crab fisher/Gilligan’s type hat, telling a story and us laughing so hard our stomachs hurt. Stories that left you choking and crying, with laughter long after he finished telling them.
You made us laugh. You brought joy. A comforting presence. I will keep my memory of you as the young funny story teller that kept us entertained, living in the moment. You will be missed John.

Big John.

Relation: Friend/Employer

Please accept my condolences in the loss of John. He was an excellent knowledgeable employee and in his last job was a valuable supplier to Pacific Homes. I will always remember his wicked sense of humor as he was the king of the one-liners. My thoughts are with you and your family at this difficult time.
