Tribute from DEREK PATERSON AND FAMILY

Relation: UNCLE

When I think of Uncle John, I always remember a happy gentleman who made time for me (and everyone else) and always had an interesting story to tell. He was a man who knew something about everything! He always went out of his way for you and I was especially grateful given my mum and dad couldn't, that he attended my wedding a couple of years ago which was a great honour. I also remember when he stayed with me following my mum's passing during which he even taught me how to iron shirts! I just wish I could return some of the generosity he has shown me over the years especially during the various visits with Gran to Canada. A great man who will be missed dearly.

Tribute from Doreen Robinson, and daughters Sondra, Jackie and Ann-Marie

Relation: Friends from Ontario

We have so many wonderful memories - especially of the many Burns suppers and "Cavalcade" back here in London, Ontario. We will always remember how dashing John looked dressed in his kilt. When remembering the many fun times, it seems so vivid, as if it was yesterday. Those wonderful memories bring smiles and laughter - we pray they do the same for you. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Love Doreen, Sondra, Jackie, and Ann-Marie

Tribute from John Brunt

Relation: Fellow Labatt Employee

It was a shock to hear of Jock's passing. He and I worked together for 21 years at Labatts and I always enjoyed working on a project with him. I'm sure he will be greatly missed by his family. Again, my sympathy.

P.S.- His obituary appeared in the London Free Press today, 14 June.

Tribute from Nancy Crich

Relation: Friend and Co-worker

We were all very saddened to read of John's passing in the London Free Press on Tuesday. John was an amazing friend to everyone at Labatt's for many years. We worked very hard and put long hours into the confidential projects but always had loads of fun together as well. At our Retiree's Golf Tournament yesterday John was remember as a gentleman and a scholar as we raised a glass to beer to him...

We really missed everyone when you moved to B.C. but you were never far from our thoughts...God Bless you all. Nancy

Tribute from Colin and Patricia Macdonald
