

REMEMBERING
Joseph Foldi

September 17, 1952 - May 20, 2020

Joseph (Schutz) Foldi was born in Bácsalmás, Hungary on September 17th, 1952 to Maria Koti and Joseph Schutz. As a young child, Joseph and his family escaped to Canada during the Hungarian revolution. Joseph was raised in Saint John, NB along with his siblings by his mother Maria and stepfather Lajos. Joseph was brilliant in academia, cooking, painting, drawing, writing and especially in music. He graduated from Saint John Vocational School and attended Post-Secondary in both London ON, and Calgary AB. His love of music began at an early age where he taught himself and mastered many instruments. This passion continued throughout his life and Joseph shared his music in any way he could. It was rare to see him without a guitar in his hand. Throughout his life Joseph played in many bands, wrote and composed his own music as well as wrote, composed and produced Faust, a rock opera which was performed live in Nelson BC. Joseph lost his battle on May 21st, 2020. Joseph's life was far from easy may his soul finally find peace.

Joseph is survived by his loving partner Lorna Medd, his mother Maria Kecskes, his son Joseph Foldi (Kristin), daughter Cora Foldi, and son Mark Foldi (Shana), 8 grandchildren - Hailey, Ayden, Hurley, Charlie, Jack, Cealy, Lyndi and Hannah. Also survived by sister Emma Beale, brothers Les Foldi (Jennifer Hersey) and Stephen Foldi (Susan Tait), sister Lisa Speight (Greg) and sisters in Hungary Eriske and Marika, several Aunts and Uncles, Godmother Dobos Maria Istvanne, and many nieces and nephews.

He was predeceased by his father Joseph Schutz, grandparents Maria and Paul Koti, Uncle Paul Koti, brother in laws Raymond Beale and Sandorne Kecskes and his nephew Baby Ronnie Evans and great nephew Jacob Daniel Belyea.

In lieu of flower, please consider donating to your local addictions and mental health societies or homeless shelter. If that is not possible, please just take the time to be extra kind to all people from all walks of life. Their stories are more than the image you see and regardless of their situation, there is someone out there who loves them.
