It was an honor and a privilege to know Ken. He was a valued neighbor and friend.

Tribute from Henri McKinnon and Val Forshaw

Relation: Nephew

What a wonderful man and inspiring uncle. We will miss the warmth of his smile and the twinkle in his eyes. He will be forever a role model of goodness and grace.

Tribute from Murray Flynn

Relation: first cousin

Dear Sandra and the McKinnon Family

It is with deep sadness to hear of Ken's passing. He was so full of life and so enjoyed people around him. We will miss his visits to the Okanagan with his happy smile and warm friendship. Our deepest condolences to the McKinnon families, the world will miss a good and kind man.

Tribute from Ross Janes

Relation: family friend

Very sorry to hear of Mr. McKinnon's passing.

He was my first employer: giving Grant and I a summer job at Pacific Builders when we were 13 years old.

A lot of time has passed since then, but I always remember him being a very friendly man. My condolences go out to all of the McKinnon family.

Tribute from Caroline Pilcher nee mckinnon

Relation: Uncle

Dear uncle Ken what a brave man you were in your young days as a tail gunner and in later life battling cancer I am sure you Marie David and dad are regailing people with your stories!x
