Tribute from Sharon Jackson

Relation: Friend

He will be sorely missed by so many! His humour and his ability to say and do the most outrageous things in the funniest way possible are things we don't often get to experience. And for certain, Kenn was an experience! Love to you, Dawn.

Tribute from Stevie Sawatzky

Relation: Old friend

I am so sorry to hear of Ken's passing. I have known Kenny for more than forty years. In the younger years he made me shake my head and laugh. Throwing used up cell phones under his truck tires and after running them over he would ask who was missing their phone. Oh he stopped some hearts lol. You will be missed, my thoughts to you Dawn.

Tribute from Robina McLaren

Relation: Became friends through a facebook group and over the years our friendship became a special connection between Kenn, dawn and myself.,

Kenn (Seanchaidh) your light will continue to shine in the hearts of so many. Thank you for the light, love and laughter you brought to my path. You were a great warrior and valued friend. You fought courageously and for you, the battle is over - be great beyond! Heartfelt condolences to Dawn and the family.

Relation: Sister in law

He was my older brother. That meant a lot to both of us. He also was my first spiritual teacher. Kenn never dropped his spiritual beliefs, and I am sure he is twinkling with the stars and dancing with the wind now

Tribute from Randy, Bouch

Relation: Kenny and I first met when I was living in James bay , that was Victorias Haig ashbury at the time. He was working at the bargentel at that time, making leather goods. Years later we shared a home on Bundock st. With his girlfriend Karen Hjalmarson and son Ruben. Ken and I drove trucks and ran equipment for Eric Melgaard for many years.

It's sad to see another one of the old boys go .
