

REMEMBERING
Kenneth Frederick McFadden

January 29, 1948 - February 1, 2023

After a long battle with cancer Kenn passed away peacefully at his home.

He is predeceased by his parents Ken and Betty and his son Reuben.

He will be sorely missed by his wife Dawn, her son Shane, his wife

Bethany and grandchildren Nathan and Fiona. Kenn's son

Tom Fullerton his wife Alison Crump and his grandchildren

Thomas, Hayley, Ariel, Mason, Mia, Emi and John Monroe.

Kenn first moved to Vancouver Island in 1969 from Montreal where he met and Married Melody and they had their son Reuben.

A few years later he moved to the Cowichan Valley where he worked for several different companies driving truck until 1995 when he bought his own truck and was an owner/operator until he retired in 2016.

Kenn made a huge impact on the people he met, not only with his humour but with his caring and compassionate ways, his generosity and wisdom will live on for many more.

He truly was a special person.
