Tribute from Susie Cusson

Relation: Friends

I remember the first time I met Ken, he came into my restaurant across the road from his home & shop and with a great big smile and twinkle in his big blue eyes he welcomed me to the neighbourhood. For the time I was there, he was not only a good customer but also a good friend. My condolences to Christine for her loss. Good ol' Pinson's corner has lost one of its brightest lights. Rest in peace my friend, you are pain free now.

Tribute from Dave and Wendy Reed

Relation: As the husband of our longtime assistant, Chris.

Time flies by so quickly, Chris. We are sorry for your loss, but understand he is out of pain now. Not fair for an active guy to have been laid low. He was always there for us when one of the motors broke down, cheerful and dependable for us. Thinking of you.

Tribute from Worm

Ken was a wonderful person, I helped care for him at the end of his life and he was always bright, cheerful, and funny. He never let his suffering affect his spirit. We miss having him there and hearing his voice through the halls.
