Chander's and my sincerest condolences to the Rederburg family. Lorrie was one of my closest friends during university (and bridesmaid at my wedding) and I will always remember her gorgeous smile, quick laugh, wicked sense of humour, fun-loving nature, generous spirit, and deep love of Wendell, her mother and her sister. She was unique in every way, and I am sadder than I can say to learn she is gone. Rest in peace, my friend.

Relation: We grew up together, best friends for many years

Sending condolences to Lorrie's husband and children. Lorrie grew up across the street from me, we were inseparable throughout our childhood and teen years. Oh the adventures we had (or should I say misadventures), we had so much fun together. Although I hadn't seen her in many years, she was never far from my thoughts. She was a beautiful person inside and out. Her smile and heart will forever be missed

Our deepest condolence to Wendall and his family.

Lorrie was such a beautiful and kind soul.

I met her when our kids played hockey together and she was so welcoming and fun to talk with while we cheered our team on.

We have all been blessed to have had Lorrie in our lives and although she will be missed so dearly, I like to think her children and family and all of her friends now have an angel watching over them.

Rest In Peace Lorrie.
