Tribute from Arline McKay

Relation: My Auntie

Auntie Marion was such a great person, as a child I would just stare at her and be thinking how beautiful she was, her blond hair and I loved the way she spoke with a slight accent .
I thought that she was so glamorous.
I remember the time that the Allan Denise an I camped on her beautiful property in Youbou ,although I knew that we had over stayed our welcome ,she never made us feel that we had .she understood and was so gracious and accommodating to the kids and I.Yes she even fed us at times, she was such a wonderful cook too .
I will never forget the heartfelt talks we had that summer .Auntie you will live on in my heart forever ,Never to be forgotten for the amazing woman that you were
