Tribute from Adrienne Hall

Relation: Friend of the family

I first noticed Marv on a soccer sideline around 1975, and got to know him over the next 5 years. I remember his patience, tolerance and firmness with his sons and their various friends. He was always willing to lend a hand with any number of frequently messy projects taking place with cars in the driveway. I also have fond memories of one christmas dinner at the Larson home, where it was clear how proud he was of his family. At one point I recall Marv looking across the table. His eyes rested on Mary and his ready smile poured across his face. I feel fortunate to have known Marv and Mary during those years of my life and send my regards to Jim, Pete and their families too.

Tribute from Roy Crawford

Relation: Duncan Minor Hockey

My condolences to Mary and the family. I had the good fortune of meeting and working with Marvin in the early days of the Duncan Minor Hockey. He was one of the most positive, hard working people I've met and was instrumental in the success of the organization, always willing and ready to help in any way.
