Dear Ray and Simone

I was deeply saddened to hear of the death of Tricia and send you my sincere condolences. Although I didn't see her that often I have over the years done some art classes with her, enjoyed tailoring classes with her at Malaspina College, seen her at the symphony, came to lovely Christmas parties at your house as well as other memorable visits. She was always so welcoming and made you feel good. She always had a big smile for everyone. I will definitely miss her presence here. Sending you love and hugs at this difficult time.

I am so saddened to hear of Tricia passing. I just loved her. Every time we met we seemed to gravitate to each other and talk and talk. As I know she was like that with many with her gentle soul and like someone else said her wonderful laugh.

She was a wonderful artist, mother, wife and friend. Peace is with her.

Condolences to her family.
