I knew your mom and dad through the golf course. They made an absolutely perfect and loving couple. Your mom, in particular, was unforgettable! Always so stylish and friendly she was one of the loveliest ladies I have ever met.

My sincerest condolences to the family--Mary was really one of a kind.

We just heard the sad news about Mary's passing. After we left Duncan, whenever we saw Mary, even in her 90's, she was energetic, friendly, humorous and above all--stylish. We send our sincere condolences to all the Milino family. Mary was an inspiration to all who knew her.
