

REMEMBERING Nora Walton

April 28, 1920 - December 24, 2012

Nora Florence Walton Born April 28th, 1920.

In 1945 Mom arrived in Haney BC as a young widow with 3 small boys from a small town in AB. In 1947 she and Ron Walton married . they had 3 children, and together they raised 6 children through some very tough times.

With the help of her father they opened/operated the Alouette Inn (Black Sheep Pub) in Maple Ridge from 1946-51. In 1961 they moved to Duncan where mom worked at various restaurants including the Silver Bridge and Quamichan Inn.

1970 brought a move to James Bay that would last 43 years. Mom worked at the Empress Hotel until dad's retirement in 1982. That began a wonderful time of travel for them, for many years. They traveled to Hawaii for 30 some years each winter. The little motor home that mom drove, (and dad kept shiny) brought many happy times with family and friends all over our island as well as many places in the US. also there were a multitude of cruises that were very much enjoyed as well.

Nora (mom) slipped away peacefully in the early morning hours of Dec 24th, 2012, at her son's home in Duncan, with her husband of 65 years by her side. A life well lived, to the fullest for 92 ½ years...

Nora was predeceased by grandson Timmy, sister Betty, daughter Lynda, son Marvin. She is survived by Husband Ron, sons- Gary (Pat) Walton, Wayne (Jeanette) Schultz, Terry (Marty) Walton, Ron (Deb)Walton, Daughter-in-law Rose Schultz , son-in-law Dave Whiteway.
