Tribute from Lindy Kennedy

Relation: Customer

I'm so sorry for your loss. He was a customer and always was kind, offered good advice and had good stories. He talked about his family with pride and loved his wife Shirley very much. I'm sorry for your loss. RIP Cowboy

Tribute from Stephen Whipp

Relation: Friend and Financial Advisor

Norm could fill a room with his laughter and stories or with his quiet demeanor. His biggest concern of leaving first was for Shirley. "Now you make sure, you promise me when I'm gone you'll look for her. If not I'll haunt you." he'd say when Shirley was not in the room. He'll be sorely missed by all of us. A great example of a cowboy gentleman. We are here for you Shirley, please make sure Norm knows. Best Steve and team.

Tribute from Lisa House

Relation: Friend

Shirley, I'm so very sorry to hear of Norm's passing.

Norm was a patient and kind-hearted man that smiled easily and quickly. His quick wit and charm could brighten anyone's day.

This world is a little dimmer without him but I'm thankful to have known him and counted him my friend.
