Tribute from Judi Fergusson

Relation: Queen of Angels School Staff

Peggy was the most warm and caring teacher. She approached every child with love. Years after she retired, former students would visit the school and ask about Miss Mudge. She will be sadly missed.

Tribute from Al Smith

Relation: Retired Teacher

Sister Peggy was a kind and gentle person who always cared about her students in a special way that I'm sure remained as part of their lives.

She was welcoming to all and had a special presence that made those around her feel accepted. She always saw the good in others.

God bless you Sister P.

Tribute from Paul Kelly

Relation: nephew

I am very saddened to hear of My Aunt Peggy's Passing. Although I have not seen her as often as we used to lately, the memories linger on. It was Peg who took me to first and probably only drive-in movie. Peggy always came for Xmas or New Years Dinner, She always gave us our large can of Poppycock Popcorn and homemade too. We will miss Peg but she is out of pain and her memory lives on forever.
